Checklist: Couples & Honeymooners

Gala Evenings & Specialty Dining

- [ ] Evening formalwear: cocktail dress, dark suit, or tailored dress shirt and slacks (required in main dining rooms on formal nights).
- [ ] Dress shoes or stylish flats broken in for walking across multi-deck venues.
- [ ] Smart-casual resort wear made of breathable linen or cotton blends for outdoor cocktail hours and sea-view lounges.

Beach Days, Private Islands & Shore Excursions

- [ ] 2 to 3 swimsuits per person (allows each suit to fully dry on bathroom clotheslines without mildew).
- [ ] Lightweight waterproof dry bag (10L or 20L) for passports, wallets, and phones during tender boat rides and catamaran tours.
- [ ] Universal waterproof phone pouch with neck lanyard for underwater photography.
- [ ] Reef-safe sun protection, sunglasses, and cooling after-sun aloe lotion.
- [ ] Sun hat or baseball cap equipped with a chin cord to withstand gusty ocean winds on upper decks.

Cabin Comfort & Tech Setup

- [ ] Universal travel plug adapter (many older and European vessels only feature one US outlet and two European sockets per cabin).
- [ ] High-capacity power bank (10,000–20,000 mAh) for full-day excursions away from the ship.
- [ ] Travel-sized colognes/perfumes in atomizers under 3.4 oz (100 ml).
- [ ] Foldable, packable daypack for exploring local ports without excess bulk.
